January, 2017

Dear Friends,

Hello, on Saturday, October 1, 2016, while I'm at home in Lagos, Nigeria. We're working hard on all the thousands of printed newsletters right now, hoping to get all of them to the Post Office within the next two weeks. Thanks for your prayers, and your offerings for the ministry, to help me keep going to the nations. I also pray for you, too, and I thank God for you.

I'M PRAYING THAT 2017 WILL BE FILLED WITH YOUR TESTIMONIES!

SOME RECENT TESTIMONIES

GHANA – We dedicated two more churches in August, churches you've helped me build in northern Ghana. The first was at Kologo, on August 12, and the second was at Kukua, Tamale, on August 13. Thanks to every person who is having a part in the ministry!

NIGERIA – A lady in Abuja, capital of Nigeria, testified a few days ago, about how she had written down her prayer points, when I ministered in her church last year. One was a healing of her memory, as she was always forgetting things she needed to remember. She had a terrible fear of dementia and Alzheimer's. Now, God has done it, and her memory is normal again.

USA – A lady in a church where I was ministering in the month of June, got healed as I prayed! She hadn't been able to lift her arm up over her head for over a year. Now she can do it!

GHANA – We had a double service at the second new church we dedicated in northern Ghana in August. It was a Dedication Service, and also a Five Year Memorial Service, to remember the home going of my beloved husband, Rev. Arthur E. Hokett, on August 6, 2011. So many nice things were said about his life, and I was so happy. They presented two big lovely plaques to me, and I was greatly honored. It was the twelfth church finished and dedicated during these past five years, and I praise God!

USA – I saw a couple I hadn't seen for quite a few years, while I was ministering in June. We prayed for them to have a child after the lady had had miscarriages, and God gave them a son, then a daughter. They now have had two more children, and they were all so happy!

TANZANIA – A lady always prepares a delicious meal for us after every service on the three nights in a church in Dar Es Salaam every year. She bought a nice key holder from our usual big display of books, stickers, etc., for people to buy after every service, and asked me to pray she would get a better car. In March, I saw her new car in front of her house!

NIGERIA – Earlier this week, my good friend, who is retired after a long career as a diplomat, and most recently served as an ambassador for Nigeria, gave a wonderful testimony. She's now doing missions work, going to several countries. God healed her of a very sharp pain in her back, and of athlete's foot.

USA – Life Christian University, in Miami, Florida, is helping to completely build Church No. 60 at Nasia, in northern Ghana. In June, they presented a beautiful plaque with the names of all the students and lecturers who gave their offerings. I took it to the pastor in Ghana, and it will be in the new church.

GHANA – We've finished Church No. 62 in northern Ghana, in a remote village called Gadantinga, and recently started helping on No. 63 at Paga Navio. There are two more to help, as the Lord provides.

NIGERIA – A lady faithfully supporting the ministry, lost the good job she had enjoyed for quite a few years. I prayed for even a better job for her, for more than a year, and she’s gotten it now, praise God!

PERSONAL NEWS

I thank God for every person who is helping me to build churches in northern Ghana! We’ll dedicate three more in January, 2017, at Pwalugu, Nagbere, and Guabiliga, then two more in August, 2017, at Nasia and Gambaga. Thanks so much for giving, to make it all possible!

The beautiful “Thought for the Day” calendar for 2017 is out this week. Write to me, for details about how to get a copy for yourself, wherever you are. It’s the 26th edition, always printed in Nigeria.

God is so good! Everywhere I go, traveling and ministering all the time, people are so kind! In one place in northern Ghana, the pastor took me to a very nice new hotel, owned by his assistant pastor. Everything was perfect for the six days I was there, with no charge. In Abuja, Nigeria, a pastor and his wife always put me in a nice Guest House when I’m ministering in their church and others. They assign people to help me in every way, also take me to every place I need to go.

In Zambia, three different families host me in their homes, and in Swaziland, I stay with a wonderful lady; in Botswana, I’ve stayed with several families; while in South Africa, I stay in the lovely home of a businessman from Zimbabwe. I stay in homes with good friends in Kenya, Uganda, Ethiopia, India, etc. God has touched the hearts of His people, to be a great blessing to me!

On August 7, 2016, I had a triple 7, God’s perfect number, when I celebrated my 77th birthday. Don’t forget, I’ll send my monthly E-mail update to you, so write to me at: aehokett@aol.com.

In this newsletter, there is a Bible Reading Record to put in your Bible. Read it through in 2017!
